

Course
&
Test Series

 CBSE

 ICSE

 NTSE

 Banking & Insurance

 Central Govt.
Service

 State Govt.
Services

 LAW Entrance

 MBA Entrance

 Railways & Metro Services

...many more

abhyasonline.in

Self-Made Assignment - HTML

Frames and Iframe in HTML

Make two separate html file. And after that Create a webpage using the `<frameset>` tag to divide the browser window into two sections.

Employee Table

Department	Name	E-mail	Years of Service
Editorial	Joel Murach	joelmurach@yahoo.com	22
	Anne Boehm	anne@murach.com	34
	Zak Ruvalcaba	zak@modulemedia.com	4
Marketing	Judy Taylor	judy@murach.com	39
	Cyndi Vasquez	cyndi@murach.com	10
Customer Service	Kelly Sivkoff	kelly@murach.com	25
	Juliette Baylon	juliette@murach.com	1
Total Years of Service			105

Employee Details:

First name:

Last name:

Male Female

Employee ID:

Designation:

Phone Number:

Write a Code of these following output and save file with the named header.html.

Write a Code of these following output and save file with the named navigation.html.

• Task Description:

- Create a webpage using the `<frameset>` tag to divide the browser window into two sections:
 - A header at the top (25% height).
 - A navigation menu on the left (30% width).
 - A content area on the right (remaining space).

• Requirements:

- The header frame should display a file named `header.html`.
- The navigation frame should display a file named `navigation.html`.