Importance of dreaming.

Creation Story and the Importance of Dreaming (Abenaki)

The Great Spirit looked out and saw nothing. No colours, no beauty, just silence. Nothing could be seen or felt. The Great Spirit decided to fill the space. He filled it with light and life.

He had great power. He used this to command creation. He ordered the Great Turtle, Tôlba to become the land. The Great Spirit made mountains and valleys on Tôlba's land. He put clouds in the sky. He was happy. He said "everything is ready. I will fill this place with happy life". He thought of the creatures he would make.

He wanted a perfect plan. He thought very hard. He became tired and fell asleep. He dreamed. He dreamed of his creation. He saw many things in his dreams. He saw animals. Some walked on two legs. Others walked on four. Some creatures flew with wings. Some swam. There were plants. The plants were many colours. They covered the ground. Insects buzzed. Birds were singing, and dogs were barking. Humans called to each other. Everything seemed wrong. The Great Spirit thought he was having a nightmare.

When Great Spirit woke up, he saw a beaver. The beaver was nibbling on a branch. He realized his dream became real. He saw beaver make a home. The dam made a pond for his family. Great Spirit knew everything was in place.
